

District Heating and Cooling Networks are...

- A well-known technology that requires modernisation
- an established and future-proofed technology in urban areas
- It's an old technology that is still improving with different generations
- an old and well tested method to achieve system efficiency
- an important technology that can be modern (4GDH) but also out-dated (1GDH)
- A key to a successful Energy Transition of the heating sector
- promising

