

District Heating and Cooling Networks are...

- some are inefficient but the path to make them more efficient is well documented
- Efficiency is related to system age and energy sources
- Efficient when exploit renewables and low temperature fluid
- very varied, but should all be brought to high performance

